

This half term we are going to be exploring War Horse, which is by the same author (Michael Morpurgo) as our last class text, Why the Whales Came. Look at the front covers below. What do these tell you about the narrative? Write a prediction in a paragraph about what you think the story will be about and what might happen in our narrative. Remember to use the key conjunction "because" to explain your reasoning.

