

As well as our History topic on the Shang Dynasty, our Design and Technology topic is going to be exploring the ceramic work of the Shang Dynasty and comparing that with the ceramics of the Potteries (where lots of you live!).

Before we explore in depth how the Shang Dynasty created pottery, we will first look closer to home.

Research and write a paragraph about four different pottery factories of Stoke-on-Trent. There are some suggestions below.

Wedgewood

Royal Daulton

Burleigh Pottery
