

Homophones and Near Homophones

We are going to look at pairs of homophone words. Can anyone remember what a homophone is?

Homophones are words that sound the same, but have different spellings and meanings. Can you spot the homophones illustrated in these two pictures?

ball

bawl

Write down the pair of homophones for...

1:

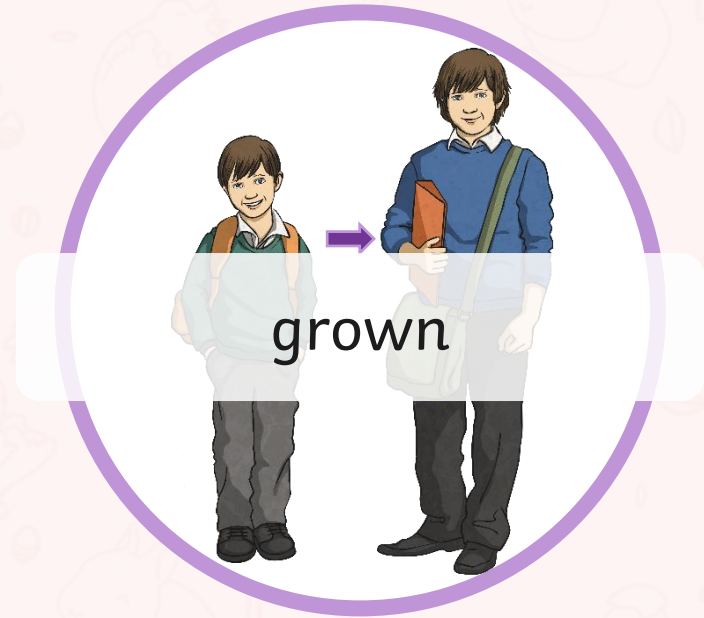

A fantastic way to separate cheese into small pieces.

Write down the pair of homophones for...

2:

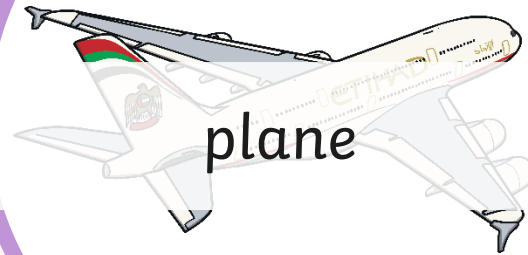

To let out a grunt because you've got taller.

Write down the pair of homophones for...

3:

A very simple mode of air travel.

Write down the pair of homophones for...

4:

A section of time without war.

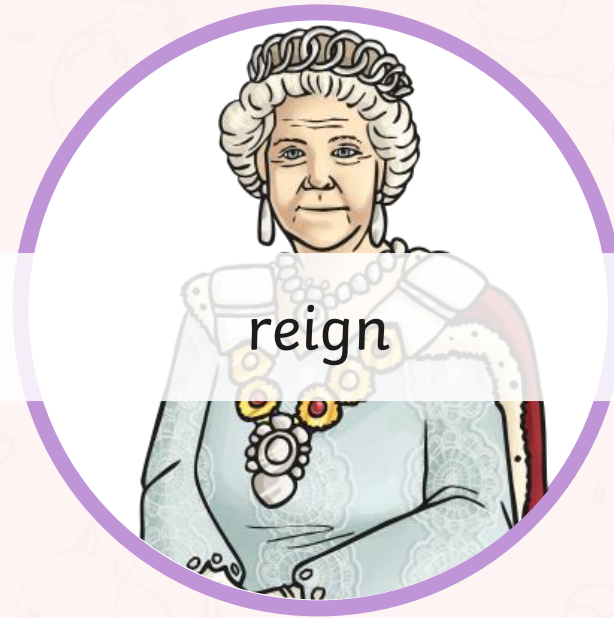

Write down the pair of homophones for...

5:

A nasty shower that drenches The Queen on her throne.

rain

reign